

LAWRENCIAN 1974

This place engenders many passageways and one of the course offerings finds us wondering about the art wing.

Here we become acquainted with the searcher who answers our questions with a question . . .

He suggests, he makes us feel he points out, he opens our eyes, we listen to him rave, and we become so encouraged . . .

Yet what he encourages is not just our sense toward art but our sense of life.

The sense of life means becoming familiar with a way to go ...
And as it is always with Horst Durrschmidt, a search directs the soul toward joy, friendship, and the next good day ...

Whatever you can do, or dream you can, begin it. Boldness has genius, power, and magic in it.

--W. H. Murray

The greatest events of an age are it's best thoughts. Thought finds it's way into action.

In a lifetime, a person constantly strives to better himself towards a certain glory or height. Rarely during this struggle does one meet a person who has reached this summit while caring for others, and making sacrifices so that they might find their way. This Academy has had the special fortune for knowing the inspirational presence of Bob Richards, a man who unselfishly volunteered his own time and experience.

We all suffer a great loss with his departure, and wish (with special gratitude from the football team) that he will find as much satisfaction with his new destiny, as we have found with his company.
